

INTRODUCTORY LECTURE ON THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA [VALUE EDUCATION COURSE]

Learning about the Constitution of India is of paramount importance for citizens of a nation as diverse as India. Understanding the Constitution helps citizens comprehend the functioning of the government and their rights and responsibilities as individual citizens. The Constitution protects citizens' rights and ensures justice and equality.

Knowledge of one's own Constitution is a crucial aspect of civic education. It empowers individuals to actively participate in the democratic process, make informed decisions, and hold the government accountable. In a democracy, an informed citizenry is essential for the functioning of a just and inclusive society.

The 2-credit Value Education Course (VEC) on the Constitution of India is designed by the Political Science Department of our college.

The course will be conducted in a hybrid mode with in-person master classes, pre-recorded videos, and discussion forums.

The introductory lecture for those First-Year Undergraduate students assigned the Constitution of India course as their VEC course in the second semester will be conducted on Wednesday, 29th January 2025, from 4 pm to 5 pm in the Palacios' Hall (College Hall).

It may be noted that the attendance is mandatory for the same.
